

New Songs for a New Year

Psalm 98

Outline of Psalm 98

- Praise the LORD—the Victor—who has delivered His people! (98:1-3)
 - Praise the LORD—the King—who is sovereign over all! (98:4-6)
 - Praise the LORD—the Judge—who is coming to rule and reign! (98:7-9)
-

Big Idea of Psalm 98

With new songs, God's people should praise the LORD—the Victor, King, and Judge—for His marvelous deeds and in anticipation of His coming reign.

Personal Application

- Will you resolve to make Godward praise a regular rhythm in your life in 2021?
 - Will you celebrate God's marvelous act of redemption in your own life by singing His praises?
 - Will you anticipate God's righteous rule in the future by living in light of it now?
-

Discussion Questions

- Was there anything new, interesting, or meaningful you took away from the message?
- What is your favorite Christian worship song? Why do you like it?
- Is singing something that comes naturally for you or is it a chore?
- Have you ever experienced God's work of salvation/victory in your own life? Explain.
- Since God is our King, how does this inform the glory and grace of our relating to Him?
- Does the fact of God's future judgment cause you comfort or fear? Explain.
- Is there an immediate application you know you need to make after studying Psalm 98? What does God want you to know, believe, desire, or do in response to His Word?